

MISSION & HISTORY

Since 1987, the Hunt Family Foundation (the “Foundation”) has predominantly supported charitable organizations and initiatives that target the areas in and around El Paso County, Texas, Doña Ana County, New Mexico, New Mexico, and Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua, México (the “Borderplex” region). The Foundation also supports organizations whose programs impact the state of Texas, and the nation as a whole. Charitable giving is focused on education (which includes grades K-12 and post-secondary education), healthcare, the arts, local heritage, quality-of-life initiatives, and regional economic development. This report was prepared to provide transparency to the communities we serve.

Percentage of Distributions by Region Since 1987

LONG-TERM GIVING

Since 1987, the Foundation has made grants and commitments to various organizations totaling $107,773,054. To promote program sustainability, we award multi-year commitments to charitable organizations with a widespread and prolonged impact. To encourage community participation, the Foundation often makes multi-year commitments whereby we match private contributions made to charitable organizations.
