

MISSION & HISTORY

Since 1987, the Hunt Family Foundation (the “Foundation”) has predominantly supported charitable organizations and initiatives that target the areas in and around El Paso County, Texas, Doña Ana County, New Mexico, Otero County, New Mexico, and Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua, México (the “Paso del Norte” region). The Foundation also supports organizations whose programs impact the state of Texas, and the nation as a whole. Charitable giving is focused on healthcare, education, the arts, local heritage, quality-of-life initiatives, and regional economic development. This report was prepared to provide transparency to the communities we serve.

LONG-TERM GIVING

To promote program sustainability the Foundation awards multi-year commitments to charitable organizations with a widespread and prolonged impact. Since inception, the Foundation has made grants and commitments to various organizations totaling $52,727,000. To encourage community participation, the Foundation continues to make multi-year commitments whereby they match private contributions made to charitable organizations.
