

Hunt Family Foundation Annual Report For 2005

Since 1987, the Cimarron Foundation has supported charities and initiatives that focus on El Paso and the surrounding region. Today, this charitable entity is known as the Hunt Family Foundation, and over the past eighteen years has made gifts and commitments of $8.1 million to over 400 recipients. Charitable giving by the Hunt Family Foundation is focused on healthcare, education, arts, local heritage, quality-of-life initiatives, and regional economic development.

So far in 2005, the Hunt Family Foundation made contributions and new commitments totaling $3,096,834. Of the total annual contributions made, 95% has gone to El Paso recipients.

As part of its 2005 commitments, the Foundation pledged to give $1,500,000 to Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, El Paso. This commitment is in support of the planned, four-year Texas Tech Medical School in El Paso.

In addition, a grant of $1,000,000 was made to the University of Texas at El Paso. These funds will promote strategic economic development through the University's Institute for Policy and Economic Development.

Below is a brief summary of significant Hunt Family Foundation gifts and commitments made thus far in 2005.

COMMITMENTS: $2,500,000, INCLUDING MAJOR COMMITMENTS TO:

- Texas Tech Health Sciences Center
- University of Texas El Paso, Institute for Policy and Economic Development

GIFTS: $ 596,834, INCLUDING MAJOR GIFTS TO:

- Avance
- Centro de Salud Familiar La Fe
- Center Against Family Violence
- El Paso Community College Foundation
- El Paso Interreligious Sponsoring Organization
- El Paso Museum of Art
- El Paso Symphony Orchestra
- El Paso Rehabilitation Center
- International Hispanic Cultural Institute
- Keystone Heritage Park
- Lydia Patterson Institute
- United Blood Services
- University of Texas at El Paso
- Ysleta Education Foundation
- YWCA

OUTSIDE OF THE EL PASO REGION, GIFTS / COMMITMENTS INCLUDED:

- MD Anderson Cancer Center, Houston
- Southwestern Medical Center, University of Texas
- University of Texas, Austin

Note: all figures rounded to even dollars

The Hunt Family Foundation (formerly the Cimarron Foundation) is an El Paso charitable entity founded by Woody L. and Gayle Hunt. Mr. Hunt serves as Chairman of the Foundation and Marcus J. Hunt is its President.

"We believe in El Paso and we know this region has great potential. This underscores why our charitable focus will continue to be here." – Woody L. Hunt

