

HUNT FAMILY FOUNDATION

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2009

Since 1987, the Hunt Family Foundation has supported charities and initiatives that focus on El Paso and the surrounding region. Over the past 22 years, this charitable entity has made grants and commitments to over 550 recipients. Charitable giving by the Foundation is focused on healthcare, education, arts, local heritage, quality-of-life initiatives, and regional economic development.

For 2009, the Foundation made contributions and new commitments totaling $4,890,863. 2009 contributions totaled $2,065,993, with 94.9% directed toward the Paso Del Norte region.

As part of its 2009 commitments and in keeping with its ongoing mission to improve healthcare in the region, the Foundation awarded $500,000 to The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, and $1,500,000 to the Texas Tech Health Sciences Center in El Paso to endow a Chair in the Department of Psychiatry. Addressing its focus on education, the Foundation made a $100,000 commitment to provide El Paso-area students with scholarships to attend St. Paul's School in Concord, NH, and it also made a $25,000 commitment to the Ysleta Education Foundation. The Foundation awarded the USO a $50,000, five-year commitment to support their "Operation Home Away From Home" program, a quality-of-life initiative at Ft. Bliss. A $50,000, five-year commitment was also made to Centro de Salud Familiar La Fe, for their Magoffin Villas housing initiative in downtown El Paso. Promoting economic development, the Foundation made a grant of $1,000,000 to UTEP for the Texas Research Incentive program, which resulted in a partial-matching grant by the State of Texas for $750,000.

For 22 years, the Hunt Family Foundation has provided financial assistance to many groups and causes that strive to make a real and positive difference. The Foundation has grown since those early years, and we are very proud that the grants and commitments made to date by the Foundation have touched the lives of many through over 550 recipient entities.

The Hunt family is proud to be a part of El Paso. We consider it a privilege to give back to our community, and a major portion of our charitable giving will continue to be here.
